

Zion Town Residences in the Post-Civil War Era

Zion Town was an African American neighborhood in the West End of Richmond populated by freed slaves around 1880-1930. Most of its residents made a living doing domestic work in the neighborhood of Westhampton.

Zion Town

-  Zion Town Residence
-  Present Day Zions town Road
-  Current Roads
-  University of Richmond

Lead Cartographer: Grace Leonard
December 6, 2011
Projection: NAD 1983 HARN
Sources: City of Richmond; ESRI;
Harlan, Howard. Zion Town--
A study in human ecology.
1935: University of Virginia

