What can we do?

- Acknowledge that we are all influenced by gender biases
- Base hiring decisions on objective information
- Remove gender information from evaluation scenarios

What can colleges do?

- Revise their introductory computer science course and split it into two levels divided by experience
- Provide research opportunities for undergraduates after their first year in college
- Take female students to the Grace Hopper Celebration of Women in Computing or similar conferences

What can employers do?

- Clearly define employees' roles and responsibilities
- Provide opportunities for training and development
- Acknowledge employees' contributions
- Root out uncivil behaviors
