Those signs are mean

Today 12:19 PM

so is rape, victim blaming, and police not doing anything about it

they're meant to be mean

But rapists aren't going to see or care about those signs

It's just us regular guys that see it and we feel like it's attacking us 😞

I MILLY ROCK ON EVERY BLOCK hehehe

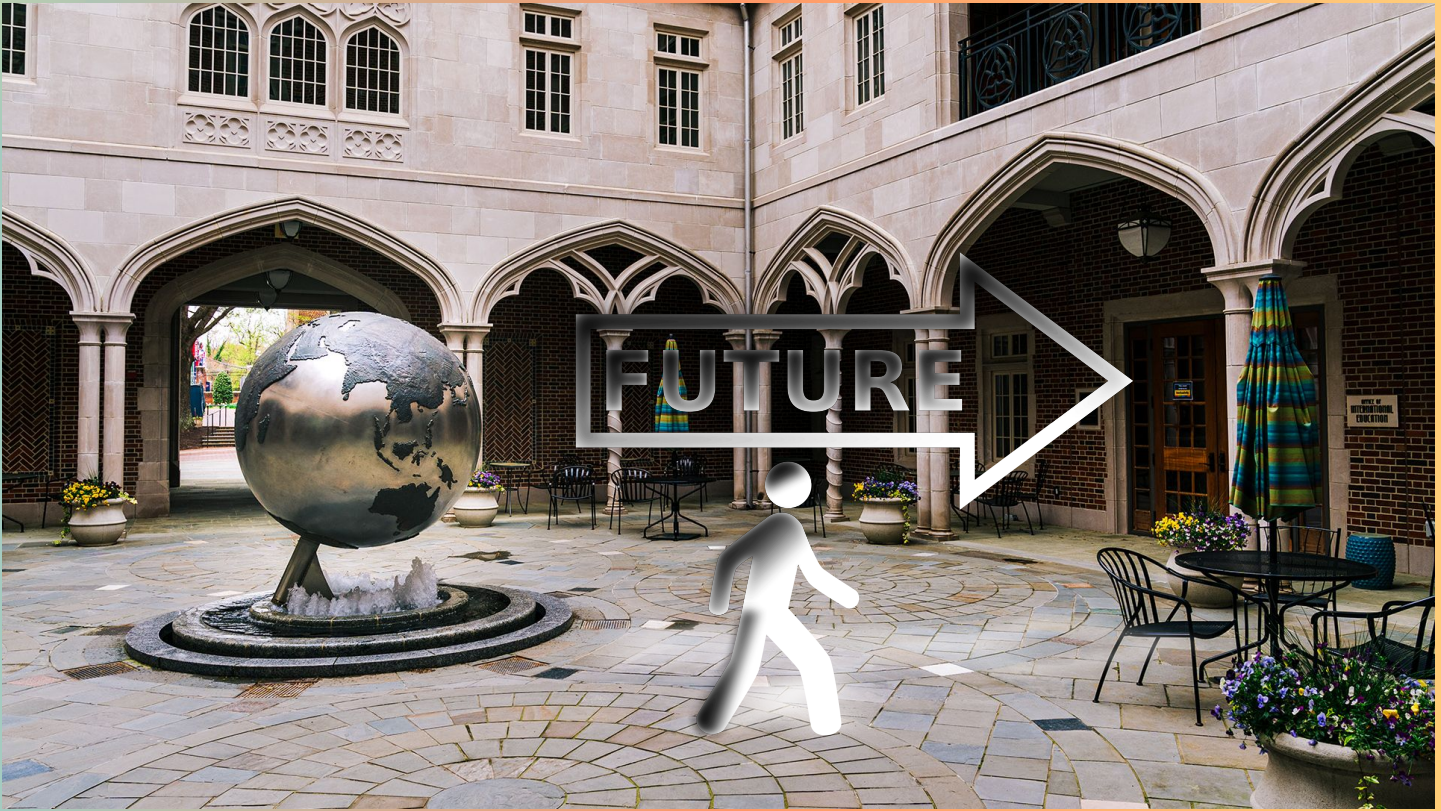

You can't account for every guy. I don't even know what my followers have done. This was an intervention to stop sexual assault of women around the world and modified to fit our campus. You shouldn't feel attacked unless your actions have made you feel that this post could be attacking you (that's just my opinion). If you'd like to learn more about the protest/intervention you're welcome to read about how it started in Chile <https://qz.com/1758765/chiles-viral-feminist-flash-mob-is-spreading-around-the-world/> and how the oppressive systems put in place around the world protect rapists and participate in victim blaming.

Yesterday 3:58 PM

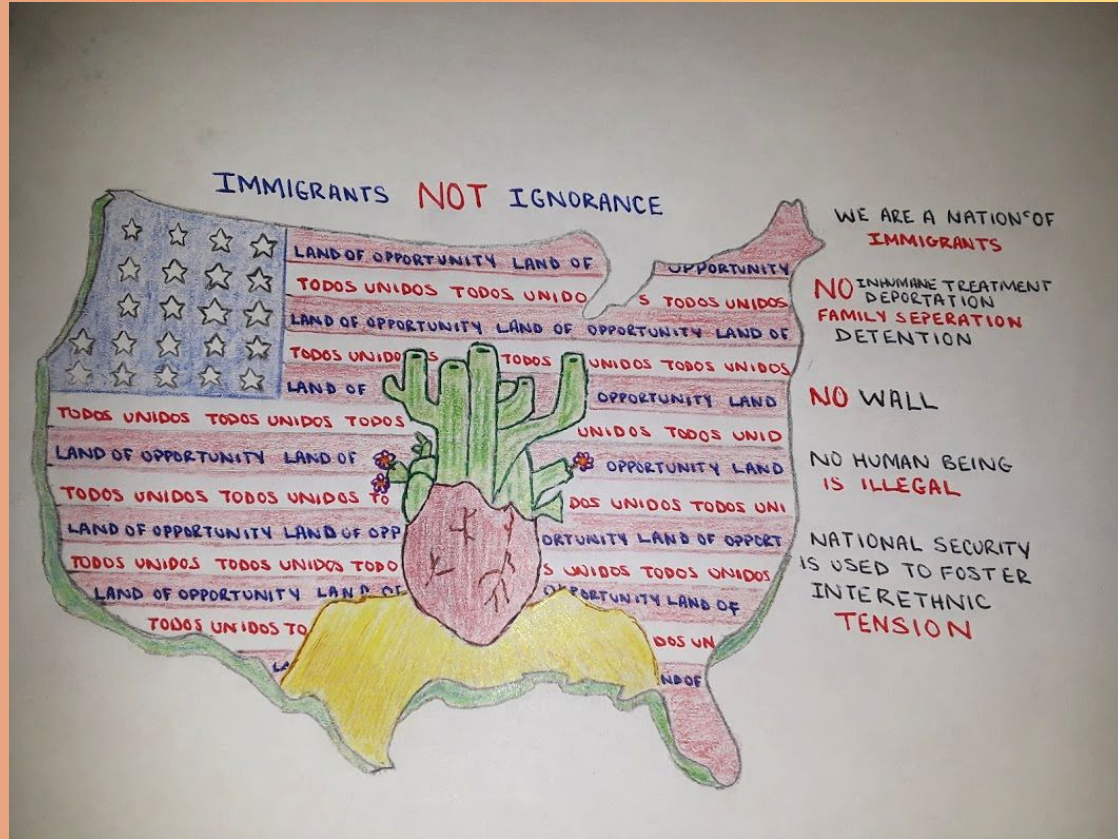

I just shared your latest post in my story as an act of support. Please check out and let me know if it's cool if I keep it posted

If there is any problem with it I don't have a problem with deleting it

 I am an international student from Honduras :)

Projects yet to come...

Gracias Thanks
