

LCLD Success in Law School Mentoring Program Letter to Law Students

October 2015

Ladies and Gentlemen,

The Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD) is excited to offer the LCLD Success in Law School Mentoring Program for first year students at the University of Richmond School of Law. LCLD is a national organization of more than 220 corporate general counsel and law firm managing partners. For more information about LCLD, please visit LCLD's website at www.lclldnet.org.

LCLD believes that success in law school is the first step to a successful legal career. To support the success of diverse students in law school, LCLD is launching the 2015-2016 LCLD Success in Law School Mentoring Program in more than 30 cities around the country, including Richmond, Virginia. Participating mentees will be paired with an experienced lawyer in your city, from one of LCLD's Member organizations. Mentees will also have an opportunity to participate in the LCLD Group Mentoring Program, which includes networking events and substantive informational programming.

You can register online for this first come, first serve program beginning October 15, 2015. Please register on LCLD's website, using the following link: <http://www.lclldnet.org/programs/law-school-mentoring/mentees/>. If you have additional questions, please feel free to contact me, Rita Davis, or Nancy Richardson, LCLD Program Manager (nrichardson@lclldnet.com or 804.787.8009).

We look forward to helping support your success in law school!

Sincerely,

Natalie Harris & Rita Davis
